

Donna Patterson

December 16, 1962 - September 27, 2025

DONNA LYNN PATTERSON was born December 16, 1962, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late William Glen Paige and Mary Lindy Patterson. Donna attended Lombard Junior High School and later graduated from Eastern High School. She worked as a cashier when she was younger. Donna loved everyone unconditionally. She joined First Baptist Church. Donna attended noon day Bible study every Monday afternoon. She was very proud to show off her reading skills and always volunteered to read.

Donna would also share the extra copies of our daily bread with other fellow patients at whatever nursing home she was in and shared her treats. One of her favorite scriptures was Psalm 23, and she loved The Lord's Prayer. In her free time, she spent time watching movies on the Television Network Bounce. She would insist others watch as she did and share comments about the movies. She adored fancy hats and scarves and wanted them in every color of the rainbow. She also worked hard to maintain her long, natural, fancy nails. She was also fond of her ear and nose piercings. Her favorite songs to sing, which she sang to everyone were "Shine on Me" and "I'll Be Alright."

On September 27, 2025, she was called from labor to reward. Donna was preceded by her mother Mary Patterson and her father William Glenn Paige.

Donna leaves her sister Alezia Patterson, cousins, other family members and friends who will truly miss her and will always love her.
