

Donnell Curtis Irvine

December 7, 1960 - February 6, 2012

Donnell Curtis Irvine was born Wednesday, December 7th, 1960 at the University of Maryland Hospital, in Baltimore. The son of Evelyn Virginia Irvine who recently preceded him in life, he was the youngest of five children. He was educated through the Baltimore County School System and graduated from Chesapeake High School where he played football. Donnell had a passion for fishing, motorcycles, his pit bulls and grilling wild game from the woods of Bradford, Pa.

Donnell was a veteran of the U.S. Army where his duties had him stationed in both South Korea and Germany. Upon his discharge he returned to Baltimore, but his restless spirit soon took him to Florida then to the quiet town in northern Pennsylvania called Bradford where he eventually called home.

Donnell had a real zest for life. It was evident as he valiantly fought to stave off leaving his love ones behind, until it was told to him, to just let go. He will be missed but we pray that the Father will allow his soul to follow the same righteous paths that the souls of his mother and brother now travels.

He leaves behind to mourn and to cherish the good times; his sister, Barbara; two brothers, Vernon and Maurice; three children, Shana, Michael and Bandon; one niece, Nadia; and two nephews, Pj and Mogan. His friend in life, Sue Gaze; as well as Willie and Andrea, Donna Lamb, Erma; Cousins, Hester, Missy, Felissa, Michael and Junior; one brother-in-law, Mack Bevel; two sisters-in-law, Shawn Irvine and Michelle Irvine. And to the Matriarch of the family Aunt Rosa and her sister Aunt Carolyn.

“ In your sadness, may there be hope... In your thoughts, may there be peace... In your heart, may there be healing. My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. (Psalms 55:22)

M. Johnson - February 10, 2012 at 06:32 AM

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Delores Allen - February 09, 2012 at 06:14 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
