“ Happy Heavenly 18th Birthday stinka man....I miss you so very much in always will...My days & times are much better because I started to let go of alot of anger and hurt because life after you passed wasn't all great. I had to fake smiles and feelings just to get through the years and I couldn't live like that so I made a choice to LET GO of the PAST and everyone who didn't feed any purpose in it and start understanding where my life is in the present time....Love you always Donovan Jr.a.k.a Man-Man

“ Dear Family of Baby Donovan, I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Sampson's Family: I am sorry to learn about your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's a times like this that we need comfort and search for answers. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At Job 14: 14 a question was asked, " If an able bodied man die, can he live again?" The answer can be found at John 11: 25, here Jesus says, " I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Yes Almighty God, through his now reigning King, Jesus Christ will bring back our dearly beloved ones into a paradise. I pray that you rely on the God of All Comfort to comfort you now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ *I'm sorry to hear about your loss. Death is always painful but especially when we lose our loved ones while they are so young. I would, though, like to express the Bible's hope for the future. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke about the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible speaks about a resurrection of the dead. “ At times like this we think what can be worse than loosing a child in death. So during this time we need comfort and words of encouragement and that is what God's word offers us. (2 Corin. 1:3,4) Best of all the Bible gives us hope of seeing our love ones again. Right here on earth but under better conditions. Conditions that all mankind has long for. Isaiah 41:10,13 speaks of Jehovah keeping fast hold of us with his right hand of righteousness, verse 13 says do not be afraid I myself will help you. So when we look to God as our stronghold we get strength that is beyond our own.##imported-begin##Lillian Lewis##imported-end##

“ Hello Sampson 's! May I take this opportunity to express my deepest condolences to you all in losing baby Donovan. Death breaks the family circle. There were so many things you all look forward to for baby Donovan as he grew up as a young man. The bible say at Ecc.9:11, that time and unforeseen occurrence befall all of us at any time. You can have hope in the near future of seeing many of your dear loved one come back in the resurrection as John 5:28-9 say. May the God of all comfort be with you all. Sincerely, Lillian.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die and heart wrenching when a child falls victim to death. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your great loss. Being a parent is the most rewarding job we can have and the bond we develop with our children is so strong, that even when they are grown, we still mother them and nurture them. I can only imagine your pain and my heart truly goes out to you. Please be assured that our loving Heavenly Father knows your pain and has given all of us hope concerning our loved ones who have died. If you remember, three days after Jesus died on the torture stake, his Father, Almighty God, Jehovah resurrected him back to life and to heaven. He has the desire and the power to do the same for those death has taken from us. At Isaiah 26:19 it reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." This scripture tells us first that they will live again. They have been "laid to rest" and they will rise up from that rest. But where are they resting? Why they are in the grave, the ground, exactly from where they were laid. This will be possible by means of a resurrection. They will cry out joyfully and have reason to do so; being brought back to life is a wonderful reason to cry. No doubt we will cry a joyful cry too. Imagine being there to welcome him back and other friends and family members that you've lost. Afterwards, Isaiah 25:8 says, "And he will actually swallow up death forever..." I hope you can gain comfort in this wonderful promise knowing that your son will live again. Your family is in my prayers. Take care.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death an enemy and that same verse informs us that death will be destroyed.(First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26) What about our dead loved ones? Jesus Christ showed what he will do in the near future on the earth for the dead. (Please read John 8:40-56)In that account Jesus brought back to life a little girl who had died. In the paradise to come on earth he will do the same for many. May these divinely inspired accounts give you much comfort and strength until these promises take place.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy regarding the loss of your dear son. The loss of children is so tragic; I lost a baby brother when I was 13. In this difficult time, you can find comfort in God's promise of the time, one day soon, that all things that cause us to mourn (including the death of our loved ones) will be done away with (Revelation 21:3,4). What a wonderful prospect---holding your baby boy again! We can have complete confidence in Jesus' promise at John 5:28,29. There he states that the dead will hear and listen to his voice and live again. May the comfort that God gives help to ease your pain.##imported-begin##April Robinson##imported-end##
