Dontae stood behind me for the entirety of basic training. We would wait in line together for chow and chit chat. He was quiet, like me. I remember the one time he was given 'command' of our platoon and man oh man did that bring out a part of him I had not seen. He took it very seriously, didn't mess around and really laid took charge.

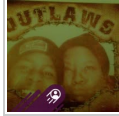

He was also one of my bunk mates. He slept on the other side of the lockers but man, that boy snored. Oh my God it was awful but he and I were as close to friends as you can be with another stranger in a strange place.

Besides the obvious memories... one thing I will never forget, the last four of his social security number. We had to say it to get fed every day three times a day... its forever engrained in my memory.

I am sorry that my search lead to his obituary, but I wanted to share the picture and let his family know, I loved that kid (we were kids). I'll look thru the book and upload the rest if I can find more, I'm pretty sure there are a few of us.

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolences for your great loss of a son, brother, grandson, and friend. As a parent, I can only imagine your pain. If I may share a scripture from the holy scriptures it would be the one at Isaiah 26:19 which reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!...." How comforting to know that our loving Heavenly Father has made this provision and we will see those death has taken from us yet once again. Afterward, He promises to "Actually swallow up death forever." (Isaiah 25:8) I hope you can find comfort in these verses. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ When I read about such a young person dying, it really saddens my heart. I'm sure he was a fine young man, and I know your hearts are grieving. Death is something we should never ever have to go through, but it touches the lives of all families sooner or later. It has touched mine many times, and the hardest death I had to endure was the death of my son at age 29 nine years ago, so I can really feel your deep pain. What helps me to cope, and brings joy to my life is knowing that Jehovah God has wonderful things in store for the human family. Under his kingdom arrangement, the bible say he will spread his tent over mankind and reside with them, and he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and even death will bse no more. He promiises that these former things will pass away. Rev 21,3-5. So take comfort in his word, cling to him because he is our salvation, and keep the hope alive in your heart of one day being reunited with your son again. Take care.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
