July 24, 1923 - January 25, 2004

Dora Bell Sellers, a loving, caring and giving woman, the daughter of the late Ed and Orvis Brown, was born July 24, 1923 in Yanceyville, N.C. She departed this life on Sunday, January 25, 2004, after a lengthy illness. She received her formal education in the North Carolina Public School System. She came to Baltimore in the early forties, as a young mother and wife. She worked for several companies, one of which were the Jack and Jill Ice Cream Company. Dora was the first black woman to drive for this firm. She was featured in the local Afro American newspaper for that effort. She would eventually work for and retire from the Eastern Products Corporation. She was a kind and generous woman. She always lent a helping hand. She was always a true friend and devoted mother. She will be greatly missed, but be assured she has met her loved ones who have preceded her in heaven. She leaves many to cherish her memory: three daughters, Faye Brown and Janet Witherspoon of Baltimore, Md., Hope Oliver of Hanover, Md.; one son, Walter L. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Sellars' Family: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know you have many wonderful and fond memories of Dora Bell Sellers to cherish. Your love one will not be forgotten. In the Bible, at Malachi 3: 16, says a " book of remembrance was being written". Yes, Almighty God, through his now reigning King Jesus Christ, will bring back our dearly beloved ones, Acts 24: 15. I pray that you rely on the God of All Comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
