

Dora Mae Brown

August 28, 1950 - May 9, 2004

Dora Mae Brown, daughter of Arlene Coppage and the late James Coppage was born in Halifax County, North Carolina. She was called to be with the Lord on May 10, 2004, in peace, which she made with God. In her early years, she joined Lee's Chapel in Halifax, N.C. and later came to Baltimore, Maryland in her later years, at the age of fifty-three, she became a faithful member of Bibleway Baptist Church, until her health failed her. She attended McIver High School in North Carolina. She later moved to Baltimore and attended Dunbar High School and then later Stellar Maris School of Nursing. On December 3, 1969, she married James Brown. Out of this union two sons were born, Bryant and Jimmie Brown. Bryant Brown preceded her in going home to be with the Lord. She worked at the Alex Chicken stall for a number of years and later started working for Elizabeth Cooney, a private duty agency. She was a well-liked person. She leaves to cherish her everlasting memory: her husband, James Brown; one son, Jimmie Brown; one granddaughter, Latoya Brown, all of Baltimore, Maryland; mother, Arlene Coppage; one sister, Annie Coppage; one brother, Robert Coppage also of Baltimore; mother-in-law, Lucy Brown; three uncles, Tommy Coppage, Ransom Coppage and Elijah Coppage; five aunts, Beulah Blackwell, Annie Smith, Dorothy Martin, Hattie Coppage and Pearlen Hopkins; five sisters-in-law, Lena Brown, Beverly Brown, Donna Brown, Laura Brown and Gracie Ned; two brothers-in-law, Isaac Durham and Emanuel Ned; devoted niece, nephews, relatives and friends, including a special nephew, Larry Brown.

“ To the family of Ms. Brown, Please accept our sympathy. During this time of sorrow and in the days to come may you find comfort from, "...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. It's so unfair that death has the power to take our loved ones away from us, but we can take comfort in the fact that Almighty God, Jehovah, promises to bring our dear loved ones back to life. He says at Daniel 12:2, "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground who will wake up..." So, take comfort in the promise that your loved one is asleep awaiting a resurrection.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
