

Doreatha A. Davis

September 8, 1943 - May 3, 2014

DOREATHA A. DAVIS was born to the late McKinley and Alda Scott on September 18, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Saturday, May 3, 2014, God called her home to her eternal rest. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and retired from Carr Lowery Glass Company in 1998, after 32 years of dedicated service. She later gained employment with the Barber Transportation Company as a "Bus Monitor." "Sissie" (as she was affectionately known) enjoyed spending time with her family and friends but, most of all, she cherished being in the company of her only daughter, "Boochie," and her two grandchildren. She enjoyed various sorts of outdoor activities. She loved to dance and travel. Sissie was known for bringing the family together and getting things done. In 1960, she married the late John Davis Jr. From this union, they were blessed with one daughter. Later, she met the love of her life of over 40 years, the late Carlton Summons. She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Doreatha Antoinette Cotton; her son-in-law, Irone Cotton Sr.; two grandchildren, Irone Cotton Jr. and Dominique Victoria Cotton; two sisters-in-law, Yvette Scott and Dornita Scott; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Davis Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our loved ones have the hope of a resurrection to a beautifully restored paradise earth. He even promises us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
