

Doresa Anna Lee Johnson

January 9, 1950 - July 4, 2010

Doresa A. Johnson, daughter of Ethel Mae Whitlock and L. Lee Mitchell was born on January 9, 1950 in Baltimore city. She departed this life on July 4, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

Doresa received her education in the Baltimore City public school system. Anyone who knew and loved her knew that Doresa loved to cook almost as much as she loved to feed people. Doresa loved doing hair and keeping her family and friends looking good. She kept everyone up on the latest styles and trends. Her favorite pass time was watching her soaps, drinking Pepsi and smoking Newport's. Doresa lived in several neighborhoods and left her mark wherever she went. She always had an open door and a kind word. She never turned anybody away and she treated everyone as family. Doresa is greatly loved and will be missed.

After 24 years of raising their children, loving and supporting one another; Doresa and Edward joined hands in marriage in 1993.

She leaves behind to mourn her husband, Edward Johnson, Sr., seven children; Edward Jr., Tina, Sheron, Alonzo, Mary, Doresa and Pooh, seventeen grandchildren; Eddie, Nelly, Pria, Ty, Reece, Manda, Randy, Mariah, Kita, Monte, Malik, Lil Lonzo, Alaze, Diamond, Tyrek, Jamel, and Anthony who proceeded her in death, five great grand children, four sisters; Francis, Gloria, Jackie, and Janet, one Brother, Jerome and two brothers who proceeded her in death. Floyd and Jimmy, mother-in-law; Mary Johnson, two brother-in-laws; Charles and Larry, two best friends; Cookie and Louise, and a host of niece, nephews, cousins, friends and extended family.
