

Doretha Y Baker

September 11, 1947 - February 14, 2021

Doretha Y. Baker “Dee” was born on September 11th, 1947 in Lynchburg, Virginia to the late Nancy B. Morris and William Morris. She departed this life on February 14th, 2021. Dee received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Dee began her career at Milford Mill Nursing Home as a Nurse’s Assistant. She later began working at General Motors where she worked for over 30 years as an Assembly Line Operator.

Prior to becoming a Mom, Dee helped raise her siblings. Dee was blessed with two handsome sons, Anthony and Steve. She nurtured and instilled in them a love for family and strong desires to achieve their goals in life.

She succeeded in being a great role model for her children and grandchildren, providing them with words of wisdom, and all they needed in life.

Dee had a gentle, kind spirit and a great sense of humor. She loved cooking “BIG” meals and was known for her famous macaroni and cheese, pulled pork, and rice pudding. While cooking she always had to have a beer and a Pepsi by her side. Dee loved dancing, listening to good music, and playing a lottery or two. Two of her favorite numbers were 927 and 316, her sons’ birthdays. She was a proud member of the Impressive Women’s Club, a club that focused on giving and helping others.

She met the love of her life, Edward Baker while working at General Motors. They were married for 30 years and loved traveling and worshipping the Lord together.

Dee was preceded in death by her sister Cynthia Withers, brother Nelson N. Carr, grandson Phillip A. Carr Jr, and Stepdaughter, Detric Weens (Vernon). She leaves to cherish her memory: Husband, Edward Baker, Sons Phillip A. Carr (Kim) and Steve L. Carr; stepchildren Stephanie Matthews (Lenny), and Edward Baker; Sisters Pearl Batten, Janice Hawkes (Fred), Deborah Carr Burton, Estelle Carr, Edwina Johnson, Phyllis Moore (Floyd); Grandchildren Steven Jr., Chanae, Chanise, Vernisha, Khalid, DaShanna, Keon, Brandi, Syndey, and Brittany; God Daughter Shawanda Jones; closest friends Phyllis Pearson, Sandra Ramseur, Brenda Gladden, Hurlean Knox and a host of great grandkids, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Aunt Dee,
I love you so much. I’ve always thought that you were so pretty and I’m so grateful that you made and kept my uncle / father happy. But I heard a song writer say, “Some glad morning when this life is over, I’ll fly away. So when you were ready. When your place in Heaven that Jesus Himself had prepared for you was ready, you so graciously and gorgeously grabbed your wings and took your flight to Glory. But you can’t crown Him King until we all get there and “what a day of rejoicing it will be.” So Aunt Dee, It was an honor to be your niece. I love you and I’ll see you in the morning
