

Doretha Graham

December 10, 1931 - April 2, 2010

DORETHA GRAHAM, daughter of the late Eugene Sr. and Hattie Stone, was born on December 10, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 2, 2010, after a lengthy illness. She received her education at St. Frances Academy High School. She worked many years with a family who treated her like a member of their family. After she stopped work she spent many years taking care of her mother prior to her death. She married her husband, the late Max Graham; and out of that union a son was born, Gary Graham, Sr. Doretha was well loved by family and friends and was truly devoted to her family. She was a devoted Catholic and had faith in her God until the very end. She leaves to mourn: her son, Gary J. Graham, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Cynthia Graham; three sisters, Delores Ellis, Ernestine Stone, Rosalita Stone; brother, Eugene Stone Jr.; two aunts, Dorothy Scott and Dollie Mae Massie; two grandsons, Gary Jr. and Corey; four granddaughters, Tarsha, Aleethia, Shauna and Nikki; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort as I have in knowing that all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) This promise is soon to be fulfilled because our Heavenly Father Jehovah loves us so much!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
