“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ dearest brenda, just a short message of hope during your time of grief. the bible gives us such comfort in the resurrection hope. we know that Jesus died for us to live, not to die. John 5:28,29 helps us to appreciate that our dead loved ones can live again. and Revelation 21:3,4 helps us to see that the time will come when there will be no more sickness, dearth or sorrow of any kind. and all of this will happen at a time when the earth will be without crime, violence, hunger, homelessness or misery of any kind. Psalms shows that satan and those who follow him will no longer be there to cause us misery. all of these wonderful promises will be in place when your mom is resurrected. and at Proverbs 3:5,6, it shows that there are requirements now for those of us who would like to be there then, obedience to God's word is all He asks and those requirements just make us better persons and so they are not burdensome. the last scripture I would like for you to read from your bible is Psalms 72:12-14,16, also Psalms 37:9-11. if you find that after reading these verses you would like to know more please just knock on my door or you can e-mail me at kic2@verizon.net take care and I'll talk to you soon.##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ Hell ! Foster's ! I would like to send my condolences to all, the family & friends. When we lose a dear loved one it breaks the circle of life. Ms. Dorethea was 88 years young, the bible help us to see that the time is coming when we will be able to live not only as Ps.90:10 say, Some person will live to be 70 and others because of speical mightiness 80 years but forever, Everlasting. Imagine the joy and happiness that will result when the dead loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that happening in the future. I hope these thoughts will be postive to read and share. May all the precious times spent with Ms. Dorethea be a support in the times ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
