

Doris A. Miller

April 26, 1935 - July 1, 2002

Doris Ann Miller was born on May 3, 1935 in Parkton, Maryland to the late Ruth Johnson King and Charles Diggs. She departed this life on Wednesday, June 26, 2002. She attended school and church in Towson, Maryland. Mrs. Inetta Walker acted as a devoted surrogate mother to Doris for several years. She later met and married James Whye. From this union Emerson Whye, a son, was born. This marriage later ended in divorce. She later married Edward Miller. Doris enjoyed cooking and entertaining her family and friends. She was known for her great deviled eggs, cucumbers, chocolate cakes and potato salad. She worked for many years in restaurants. When she got sick, many close friends and family members cared her for. Her brother and his wife cared for her until her death. Adeline Washington was a devoted friend who often sat with her. She leaves to mourn: a son, Emerson Whye; a granddaughter, Katrina Whye; a brother, Thomas Johnson; aunt, Blanche Madden; two sisters-in-law, Judy Hunter-Johnson and Delores Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends.
