“ Mama, You asked me many times would I miss you, and I would say I will; but I never knew how much. I miss your smiles, I miss our talks, I miss watching television with you and I even miss our fusses. Sometimes I think I won't make it and then I think of something you said and I am able to make it another day. I know you are singing with in the heavenly choir. But I do wishI could hear you sing "In The Garden". I truly miss and olove you. I'll see you soon. “ I'm here at work and found myself thinking about my friend. If ever there was a woman who filled my life with song, smiles, wisdom, comfort, joy, love and encouragement, that woman was your mother who was truly my friend. I miss her, but thank God she lives in my heart and memories.###imported-begin###Wanda Woods###imported-end##

“ Mrs. Doris was like a grandmother to me. Always intrested in what I was doing, concerned about my well being and wishing for the best for me. I looked forward to helping her decorate her christmas tree and appreciated her kind words. Through her I was able to get to know members of her family and they all became an extension of mine. I will miss her but will carry with me her smile.###imported-begin###Everett J. Woods###imported-end##

“ Sometimes I pick up the phone to call you but you're not there
Sometimes I think of a joke I'll tell you but you're not there Sometimes I see a dress you would like but you're not there Sometime I hear a song you used to sing but you're not there Sometime I see a pretty flower and want to ask you what kind it is but you're not there Sometime I forget a number and know you would know what it is but you're not there I just wanted you to know I miss you I love you and I care##imported-begin##Faye Carolyn

“ *Mama, I miss you. Life is so lonely without you and Saturdays are almost unbearable. I remember you asking "what are we doing Saturday". You knew perfectly well we'd watch Lifetime, talk about the Soap Opera, take a quick ride to the market, pick up a dress, talk and wonder about Juan. Sometime you'd lay on the bed with your legs crossed and read a book -- that was our Saturdays. I miss those times, I'm lonely. But, I realize I must release you to the Master. You are free to sing in the Heavenly Choir, walk the streets of gold, sit at the Master's feet and praise him. You have paid your dues down here. I respect you for the courage you had. I know it was not easy taking all those pills, going without water, going to dialysis. going to all those appointments -- trying to live for us. So I won't write anymore, I am going to try to stop crying all the time. Rest in peace but know that you are loved and missed. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
