

Doris B. Easter

April 26, 1920 - June 9, 2005

No one knows the day nor the hour that God will come to claim His very own. Death may come without any warning, so it behooves us to always be ready. On Thursday, June 9, 2005, DORIS DRUMMOND EASTER was called by God to come home and take her eternal rest. Doris was born April 26, 1920 to Mr. and Mrs. David Drummond. She received her education in Jamaica. Doris married Leonard Easter in September 1957. Doris visited many churches. She was a member of Ames Memorial United Methodist Church. She lived her life to take care of her husband and home. She was a multi-talented person. She was a seamstress, a very good cook and a gardener. Doris loved flowers. Among her talents Doris had a very creative imagination. She could talk for hours about her childhood and her father. She leaves to cherish her memory: a devoted husband, Leonard Easter; brother-in-law, Andrew Easter; two sisters-in-law, Louise Jones and Vernice Easter; a devoted godson and nephew, Darryl Easter; and a host of other nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my condolences. I personally know that the Bible can give us much comfort during our darkest hours. 2 Corinthians 1:4 explains what Almighty God does for us- "He comforts us every time we have trouble, so that we can comfort other people any time they have trouble. We can comfort them with the same comfort that God gives us." So through the pages of the Bible and with the encouraging words of others Almighty God comforts us. Please think deeply on those wonderful provisions from God and may you have peace and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. I am sure that she was greatly loved by her family and friend, but sorely missed. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
