

Doris Marie Young Barnes

October 30, 1941 - June 28, 2024

Doris Marie Young Barnes was born on October 30, 1941 to the late William and Julia Young in the small town of Bowling Green, Virginia. During the afternoon hours of June 28, 2024, Doris entered into eternal rest.

Doris graduated from Armstrong High School in 1960. For 36 years, Doris worked for the Department of Transportation where she retired in July 2008. Doris enjoyed bowling in her spare time; she was a past member of several bowling leagues and clubs where she became an avid bowler competing several times a week. In her later years, Doris enjoyed spending time with her family playing games or just sitting around chatting. Doris' second love was shopping. She did not miss senior day at Ross Dress for Less on Tuesdays. She would also frequent Walmart, Big Lots, Rose's and Gabe's to name a few of her favorites. Doris also loved going to "The Place", if you know, you know.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Eugene Barnes, brother, William E. Young; sisters, Sylvia Tolliver, Alma Young, and Shirley Rasberry and a niece, Michelle Young. She leaves to cherish her memory: brothers, Alfred Young, Sherman Young (Joely) and Juian Young, sister, Linda Young; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

May the roads rise up to meet you,

May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
May the rains fall soft upon fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

“ I am sending my heartfelt love to the family of Doris. She was my neighbor but more importantly, she was my friend. I will truly miss her and I send prayer and comfort to her family. I will forever remember our long phone conversations about our favorite television shows and how she truly looked forward to visits from her brother Al. My daughter even calls him Uncle Al. May God give you comfort and peace. Amen.

“ I am very saddened to learn about the passing of my Friend. My heart goes out to the family especially Al. Doris is at peace now. There will not be anymore sad or lonely days for her. She is just taking a little nap and will be awoken by the one that will assure her that she will never be sad again. Rest well my Friend and I will see you on the bright side when every day will be a beautiful day. (Revelations 21:4)

“ *Those we love
Don't go away,
they walk beside us everyday.
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
still loved, still missed and very dear.*
