

Doris May Bundy

February 18, 1943 - July 19, 2016

"I will praise thee O 'Lord with my whole heart;
I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

Psalm 9:1

The life of a great woman began on February 18, 1943, when Doris May Bundy entered the world to the parents of the late John Robert and Martha Smith. She was reared by her grandparents. Laverta and Willie Taylor. This life brought so much joy to them. She is preceded in death by her siblings. Gloria S. Robinson, John Smith and Laverta Sanchious.

Doris accepted Christ at an early age at Macendonia Baptist Church in Laneview, Virginia. Her Christian service was singing in the choir and being the church secretary.

On January 18, 1964, Doris married the love of her life, Ryland A. Bundy, Sr. whom she adored. To this blessed union two children were born, Allison and Ryland. They made their home in Baltimore, Maryland for several years and later moved to Henrico County, Virginia in 1984.

Doris was a product of Essex County Public School system, having graduated from Essex County High School. She later attended nursing school and graduated with a Certified Nursing Assistant Certificate.

After working as a CNA for many, many years for several medical facilities, Doris retired due to her health. She chose to pursue her continued passion crocheting dolls and knitting for her family and friends. The number of people she welcomed into her world was vast and came from all walks of life, and she deeply cherished her relationships with each and every person. She committed herself completely to the betterment of those around her. Doris commitment to motherhood has yielded two wonderful adult children. She was a devoted and caring wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother . She truly made a difference in the life's of others.

Her heavenly father called her home on Tuesday, July 19, 2016 to be with her loved ones in heaven. Left to treasure precious memories is her devoted husband of 52 years, Ryland A. Bundy, Sr.; daughter, Allison M. Bundy; son, Ryland A. Bundy, Jr; granddaughters, Brianna Bundy and Alexis Bundy; great-grandson, Jeremiah Q. Bundy; nieces, MarQuirite Robinson and Elizabeth Robinson; daughter-in-law, Sonja Bundy; sisters-in-law, Dorothy Weeks of Baltimore and Carolyn Bragg (Hardy) Chesterfield, VA; brother-in-law, Leslie D. Bundy; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"She would want to be remembered for the love she had for her husband, her special caring for the elderly and her outpouring spiritual presence."
