

Doris E. Butler

March 31, 1927 - March 7, 2011

Doris Elizabeth Butler was born on March 31, 1927, in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late George and Louise Roberts. She departed this life to be with the Lord on March 7, 2011. Doris attended Baltimore City Public Schools and became employed by Read's Drugstore in downtown Baltimore as a waitress and as a salesperson for 30 years at Danny's Kiddie City Clothing store at the Old Town Mall.

Doris E. Butler was married to Billie Butler for for 20 years. She was a devoted wife and mother of three children, Terry Butler , Milton and Clarence Roberts. She gave her life to Christ and joined Immanuel Temple A.M.E. Church serving as a member of the Stewardess board. She was devoted to her church family and her later years became the Mother of the Church. “ Mother Butler” although her illness minimized her service in the House of the Lord, She faithfully attended service on a weekly basis.

Doris was a very loving, caring and generous woman who asked for nothing in return. She had a beautiful smile and made numerous Friday wherever she went. Doris will surely be missed, remembered and loved for the Godly person she was.

Doris E. Butler leaves to cherish her memory; her two sons, Terry S. Butler (Bernice) and Milton Roberts (Katie), niece: Arlene Salter (Herbert) , Shelia

Jackson, Sharon Rollings, Theresa Mason and Doretha Mathews, host of grand and great grandchildren, family and friends.
