

Doris M. Carr

March 11, 1929 - December 6, 2016

On December 6, 2016, Doris Marie Carr, beloved daughter of the late Dorothy Hall, passed away after a brief illness.

Doris was born on March 11, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland and was educated in the catholic schools, St. Peter Claver and St. Francis Xavier from which she graduated. Doris was married to the late George A. Carr, Jr. and from that union came one daughter, Joanne Marie Carr. Mom was formerly employed at Read's Drug Store and Pallottines until her retirement.

Doris loved doing picture puzzles and word search puzzles. She loved music by Prince and Michael Jackson. She also liked going to professional wrestling matches and watching it on television. On Fridays and Saturdays she had to watch Breeze Country Dance Show, a dance show from the DC Area. Her favorite shows on TVLand were The Andy Griffith Show, Golden Girls, Everybody loves Raymond, Gunsmoke and Bonanza.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Joanne Marie Carr, and a host of other relatives and friends.
