

Doris E. Brown

November 10, 1943 - January 18, 2008

DORIS ELIZABETH BROWN was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 10, 1943, to the late Virgil and Christine Martin. Peacefully, she departed this life after a brief illness, on Friday, January 18, 2008. Doris received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1965, she entered into Holy Matrimony with George Brown. Doris worked several jobs, but retired from The Downtown Baltimore Children's Center, after thirty-five years of service. At an early age, Doris received Christ as her personal Savior. In 2004, she joined Kerygma Ministries. She loved to cook, take care of children, and travel. Doris was a very friendly person that endeared others to herself. In 1993, Doris raised two daughters, Yolanda and Shenell. They were the apple of her eye. Doris was also a proud and doting Grandma to Makiya Brown. During Doris's last months, she was cared for by her best friend from childhood, Mary Richardson. She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Yolanda and Shenell; one grandchild, Makiya; two godchildren, little Doris and Tavon Skipwith; two brothers, Ernest and Albert; sister, Glenda; sister-in-law, Sandra; brother-in-law, Bobby C. Moore, Sr.; and a very devoted friend, Mary Richardson; a host nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
