

Doris Evans

February 23, 1938 - November 24, 2003

Doris Ellis, daughter of the late Catherine and Decker, was born on February 23, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 24, 2003 after a lengthy illness. She attended Baltimore City schools. Upon completion of her education, she held various jobs, her last being a home health aide until her illness. She married the late Norman Evans. Doris was a very lovely and affectionate person. Known, as Dot by those who knew her was a true and devoted friend, she will be missed by everyone. She leaves to cherish her memory: a devoted and loved companion of twenty-eight years, William Robinson; a goddaughter, Shantavia Hart; uncle, John; cousins, adopted nieces and nephews; a devoted friend, Ethel Wise; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolence to the family of Doris Evans, Our family finds much comfort from the loving promises found in the Bible. One such promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May these words bring just as much comfort to you.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Doris Evans: I can only imagine the depth of your deep sorrow, but I want to express my sympathy. Sometimes Bible answers can give us comfort. The Bible book of Job 14:14 asks this question; "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" The answer is found at John 11:25. It reads, "Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." These scriptures have brought me great comfort during my time of deep sorrow and I hope they will comfort you too. Please accept my condolence.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##
