“ Doris and I learned that we shared part of the same name through the late Gladys Anderson and that we were both originally from NC. Since then, we became friends. She loved taking photos of church events and would often share them . However, my most fondest memory is after service we would do our ceremonial air boxing routine. I will truly miss her kind and loving spirit.

“ Aunt Doris and I shared a love of pictures, and later a love of sewing. I will miss her smile, her dancing as soon as the beat dropped, and the plant tour whenever I visited the house.

“ Dear Harvey -Brown family,
It is with great sadness that I write to share these thoughts. Mrs. Harvey was indeed a bright and shining star. She was at the church when I decided to join. As my husband and I begin to start our family of four children, we needed young persons that we trusted to keep our children. Two of those were the Harvey girls, Sylvia & Angela. Our friendship became like family-ship and so we have remained. There were also our photographic moments, giggly chit-chats on the telephone and at church. We loved one another as friends and sisters. Our sympathy and prayers continue to be with you. May God and the Holy spirit watch over and keep Mr. Winston, Sylvia, Angela, and all the family in His care.

Much love,
