

Doris Howard Wallace

July 20, 1923 - April 23, 2006

DORIS HOWARD WALLACE was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 20, 1923 to Jacob and Lillie Howard. She was married to Lester B. Wallace Sr. for fifty-five years. He left this world January 28, 2002. She was educated in the Baltimore school system, graduating from Frederick Douglass High School, class of 1941. Her higher education included degrees from Coppin State Teachers College and a Master's degree from Johns Hopkins University with honors. Doris was an educator in the Baltimore school system for thirty-two years. She started her career as an elementary school teacher. Her last eight years, she served with distinction as an elementary school principal. Throughout her career, she challenged her students to learn for the challenges of life and for themselves. Her interest in life was not just in education, but various organizations that she truly enjoyed. The Bovliads was started sixty-four years ago by twelve young girls who graduated from Douglass High School in 1941. The Epicureans was a social club where she and her late husband Lester developed life-long friendships. Her career as a docent at the Baltimore Museum of Art and The Pierians allowed her to enjoy her passion for art. Doris served the community in various ways. She was most proud of being a dedicated, life-long member of Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church. She was honored to serve her church and to share the fellowship of the Lord. In her later years, she truly enjoyed membership in the Modern Grannies, Inc. and her Tuesday Bridge Club, the Ha, Ha's. Doris leaves this world with the following family members to cherish her memory:

sons, Lester B. Wallace Jr., M.D. and Thomas DeWitt Wallace; five

“ I think about you every day, and hear your voice so many times encouraging me, sharing your strength with me. I miss you so much because there was, and is, nobody like you, and I will cherish and guard your memory as long as I live. Thank you for being the women you were and the wife you were, and the mother you were for all of our family. I miss you terribly, we all do, because you taught us so much and you and Daddy were always there for us. Your family has grown, and you would be very proud the way they are growing.

Like I said on the day of my last good bye...You will always be my Mommy.

I love and miss you, Your son Tommy

“ My condolences on your loss. May you find strength in Jehovah's promise at Revelation 21:4, where He will "wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends I send my most heartfelt condolences. At such sorrowful times in our lives, the bible can be a wonderful source of encouragement. The bible contains the answers as to why people die, as well as the permanant remedy for death"s end in the near future. According to bible prophecy, we are living in the time period where a great change for the better is about to occur on the earth under God"s kingdom. Please read Daniel 2,44, Psalm 37:10,11,29, and Isaiah 9:6,7. Also under that kingdom death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Please find comfort and hope in his promises, because they will without fail come true. Isaiah 55:10,11###imported-begin###R Johnaon###imported-end###

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Wallace's ! May I send my condolences to all. Ms. Doris was almost 83 years young when death broke the circle of life. We are living in the last day and every second some one is dying. Imagine the great joy and happiness that will result when the dead are resurrected, John 5:28. It is wonderful to know that our heavenly father is there to give comfort in all our tribulations as the bible say. With the passing of time, may all the cherish things shared with Ms. Doris help to support you all in life journey ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
