

Doris Anita Jackson

May 29, 1935 - June 3, 2018

DORIS A. JACKSON, daughter of the late Charlie and Louise Ross, was born on May 29, 1935 in Prince Edward County, Virginia. She departed her life on June 3, 2018.

Doris received her education in Virginia by way of the Virginia Public School System. On December 5, 1953, she was united in holy matrimony to the late James E. Jackson. Out of this union four children were born, Carl, Melvin, Denise, and Harriet. Doris was a natural provider. She was devoted to her children and had a very loving relationship with her sisters and brothers.

Doris was employed as a medical assistant at the University of Maryland working at the Westwood Maternity Center until her retirement. Doris was a member at First Mr. Olive Freewill Baptist Church where she made many lifelong friends. Doris was very head strong and determined. She loved to walk and would constantly be on the go. Doris loved to travel, frequently visiting her family in Connecticut and Virginia. Doris was a great cook and everyone looked forward to visiting her for a home cooked meal. Her happy spirit will be missed by all that knew and loved her.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband, James E. Jackson, daughter Joan "Neicy" Jackson, sister, Vivian Briscoe, brothers: Edward, Leroy, Arthur Lee, Franklin and Jasper Ross. Doris leaves joyful memories to be cherished forever by: her sister:" Marian Butler of Connecticut, brothers: Milton Ross of Connecticut and Tony Ross (Wife: Juanita Ross) of Virginia, sons: Carl Jackson (Wife: Linda Jackson) of Baltimore, MD, Melvin Jackson, (Wife: Linda Jackson) of Pikesville, MD.
