

Doris G. Jones

November 18, 1945 - November 16, 2018

Doris G. Jones, daughter of the late Bertha and Benjamin Barnes, was born on November 18, 1945 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 17, 2018 after a lengthy illness. She passed one day before her 73rd birthday.

She was the third of four children. Her brother Henry Barnes, and sister Melba Robinson, preceded her in death.

Doris was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. She later married the late Joseph Jones and was blessed with one son, William Franklin. She accepted Jesus as her personal savior at the New Metropolitan Baptist Church, and attended faithfully until her illness prevented her from going.

Doris overcame many obstacles in her life and beat what appeared to be insurmountable odds. She had an extensive career as a geriatric care professional and retired as a program director from Maryland Baptist Aged Nursing Home. She had a genuine love for her patients and often spoke fondly of them. She cared for them meticulously.

She leaves to mourn; son William Franklin; granddaughter, Wykia Franklin; three great-grandsons, Dennis Bowers, Denim Bird and DeyDeylen Cox; brother Raymond Barnes (Sallie); nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
