“ To the family of Ms. Doris Jones, I'm worry for the lost that has befallen you all and I know that Ms. Jones will be missed by you all. I wanted to offer a scripture as thought to comfort. The thought is found in the scripture of Acts 24:15; which goes on to say, "and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So there will be a bringing back of ones whom we have lost and we can see them again and enjoy their smiles, warmth, and company again. I hope this will help as a comforter.

My dear cousin, you were the last main living link to my past on my mother's side. We shared many fond memories and some sad, some funny of our family members and friends long ago deceased. We always talked on the phone and our conversations always ended as usual with a trip down Memory Lane. I will dearly miss our trips down memory lane together, for only you knew all of our family history back to when we were children growing up. I will have to go it alone now. But I will cherish you and the memories forever. May GOD bless and keep you safe. I will love you always. To your children, rejoice and celebrate your mother's long life. You are so blessed to have had her for so many years. May GOD be with you all. Amen

Your Cousin,
