“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 lovingly informs us of the time coming where there will be no more death, pain, sickness or tears of sorrow. Also, Acts 24:15 rightly tells us: "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere condolences to the family of Doris. Although we are truly saddened by the loss of our loved ones, know that our loving heavenly father has a wonderful purpose to restore life back to those who have died. Death was never his purpose for us, because when he created Adam and Eve they were perfect, and they had before them the sure hope of living forever. Sadly, they lost out on everlasting life for themselves, and all of us, but Jehovah God took steps to see that his purpose is carried out; to have people, not dying; but living forever. This is why, as we all know, he sent his most precious son, to undo the hurt that Adam brought upon us. The scripture at 1st Cor 15:22 makes this wonderful promise. "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Through the resurrection, God will bring many back from the grave. Please keep this wonderful scripture in mind at John 11:25 where Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Rejoice in the hope of the resurrection, and may your fond memories of Doris be a comfort to you to help you to cope.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
