

Doris G. Lightner

April 13, 1941 - February 22, 2019

Doris Green Lightner, born on April 13, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland, was one of two children born to the late Martha Coleman. Lambert Green, her brother, preceded her in death. On Friday February 22, 2019 God called His child home to rest from her labor. Doris was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Carver High School and The Baltimore School For The Arts. Doris's love for art allowed many co-workers to enjoy her posters, and family and friends looked forward to face painting at special outings.

Doris was united in Holy Matrimony to David Lightner on April 30, 1966, and from this union two sons were born, Anthony and Larry.

Doris enjoyed bowling, roller skating, shopping, sports and going to crab feasts. She loved the Baltimore Ravens and The Baltimore Orioles.

Doris retired from Noxell Corporation, formerly known as Noxzema Chemical Company.

Loved ones left with memories to cherish: devoted and loving husband to the end, David Lightner; sons, Anthony and Larry; grandson, Kenneth; two greatgrands;

brother-in-law, Harlee Lightner; sister-in-law,
Ruby Bell; nieces and caregivers, Neka and Nee Nee;
and a host of cousins, family and friends.

“ My condolences, prayers and love to the family.Doris was my neighbor and we became friends while living in the neighborhood.She was also involved in the community neighborhood association.Sometimes we would cut grass and clean up together along with other neighbors.and attend neighborhood meetings..Doris and i shared the same first name and that made it even more special for us.David and Larry and family may you find comfort in knowing that she has touched many who came in contact with her.May God continue to keep those fond memories close to your heart.

*God Bless,
Doris and Dawn Underdue . .*
