

Doris Lorraine Kinchen

April 3, 1936 - September 5, 2006

Doris Lorraine Kinchen, daughter of the late Julia and Alfred Crew, born April 3, 1936, went to her new home not made by hand on Tuesday, September 5, 2006. Jehovah called and she answered. He told her to take Long-Suffering Lane, Persecution Boulevard and Trials and Tribulations Avenue. She followed his directions perfectly right to his house on Victory Street. Good-bye world! She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Doris was employed by Johns Hopkins Hospital for all of her working life, from 1955 until she retired on disability in 1990. She loved her job in the Dietary Department and was a very conscientious worker. She would always tell her family about the different VIP's that were patients in the Marbury wing of the hospital. Because of her dedication and proficiency, she was promoted to supervisor. She was a friendly and loving person. She always had a smile and was willing to help anyone she could. She loved sharing her expertise in selecting curtains and decorating homes. She could tell you where you could buy pretty curtains (or material to make them) and other accessories for the home. She also shared information on dressing in style. She made recommendations on what she thought would be a good color and looks nice on you. She tried to steer you in the right direction in selecting your clothes. Although she was heavy, she was a fashion plate. She always looked good in her clothes. Doris had many friends, and will be missed by all. Doris enjoyed going to the Gardenville Kingdom Hall when she was able and she enjoyed her bible studies. She loved talking to the members of her congregation, especially the ones she studied with over the telephone and looked forward to this weekly event. She read her bible and daily word faithfully. Before her health began to fail, she loved attending the annual assembly. She loved her family and adored her children and grandchildren. She always wanted to do something for them. They always knew that "Mother or Grandma Doris" was there for them. Her first born, Ronald, preceded her in death. With precious memories Doris leaves one son, Maurice; five daughters, Robin, Terry, Delodier, Dawn and April; eighteen grandchildren, thirty-three great-grandchildren, three aunts and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry for your family, that our dear sister Doris has fallen asleep in death. Even though I didn't have the pleasure of meeting her, if it's Jehovah's will, I'll meet her in the paradise. Even though we have this hope of everlasting life in a peaceful new world, it still hurts us so very much when we lose someone we love in death. I lost my only son 10 years ago, and the pain never goes away completely. But Jehovah is so loving and comforting, and time is definitely a healer. I thank him everyday for his loving kindness, and his organization of loving friends on this earth that helps to get us through whatever tribulation we have to face in this troubled world. Thankfully too, when we look at all of this horrible violence and suffering that is going on; we know it won't be long before his wonderful promises are fulfilled. Then the joyous resurrection will take place, and I can see my son; and you will see your beautiful Doris again. Meanwhile, continue to endure my friends, always having plenty to do in the work of the Lord until that glorious day arrives. May Jehovah God, and his dear son Jesus, continue to help you to cope.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Doris, please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. And please be encouraged by the comfort given from the Holy Bible at 1 Cor. 15:26. May you find a measure of peace in this scripture and may it warm your heart.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
