

Doris M. Chester

January 19, 1933 - January 23, 2002

Doris Marion Chester was born on January 19, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed from this life on January 23, 2002, after a lengthy illness. Her grandmother, the late Mary Young, whom she dearly loved, following the death of her mother Ruth shortly after her birth, raised Doris in east Baltimore. She graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School and attended Waters A.M.E. Church. Doris trained and worked as a Nursing Assistant at various hospitals, including Johns Hopkins Hospital, and also held clerical positions before becoming a full –time homemaker. Doris gave birth to six children Vanessa, Shelly Rovon, Sylvia, Alan and Stephen. Doris had a generous heart and enjoyed giving gifts to her children, grandchildren and acquaintances. She loved classic movies and mysteries. She leaves to mourn; two sons, Alan L. Chester and Stephen A. Chester; one daughter, Sylvia M. James; fourteen grandchildren, Eric, Zelda, Sharonda, Damond, Ronald, Rachel, Kosha, Kisha, Michael, David, Thomas, Daniel, Darius and Alan, Jr.; two great-grandchildren, Christopher and Nakita; one daughter-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.
