“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ "To be absent from the body is to be Present with the Lord"...May the God of peace and comfort be your keeping strength during this difficult time...We are never prepared for the lost of a loved one, It has been written in the Word of God He will be a Mother to the Motherless.

“god is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." -2Corinthians 1:3 I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. When we draw close to God, he will draw close to us; one of the most important ways to do this is through prayer. We pray for others, we pray for ourselves and we pray for the situations we find ourselves in. Then wait patiently for God to provide answers. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Condolences to the Massenburg Family. Know that you will see your loved one again. There is the promise of a Resurrection hope for all mankind. That is found in the bible at John 5:28-29. Until that time may you all have fond memories of your loved one..
