

Doris B. McCoy

September 26, 1926 - April 30, 2016

Doris B McCoy, daughter of the late Algie and Lillian Perry, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on September 26, 1926. She departed this life on April 30, 2016.

Doris was the oldest of ten children. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and attended Morgan State College, majoring in Physical Education.

Although Doris was employed for many years at Edgewood Arsenal Chemical Center, she ultimately retired from the North Carolina Mutual Insurance Company. She was a lifelong member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.

She married the late William L. McCoy and together they raised five children. Doris was preceded in death by her two sons, McDonald and Gerald Boyce. Doris was the matriarch of the family. She took pleasure in sharing her wisdom. Some of her favorite pastimes were completing puzzle books, listening to music, traveling, entertaining, fine dining and gardening. She had a great fashion sense.

Doris leaves to mourn: her sons, Reginald Boyce (Dale) and William McCoy, Jr. (Carolyn); her daughter, Susanne McCoy; grandchildren, Terence, Rodney, Reginald, Jason, Troy and LaToya; five great-grandchildren; sisters, Helen

Thomas and Mary Dorsey; brother, James Perry (Daisy); and a host of relatives and friends.

Doris will be sincerely missed.

“ *I will remember always Doris' gracious gesture of Easter Sunday dinner last year. She treated a group of friends to dinner, following service at The Open Church that day. We spent several hours together that day, laughing, telling stories, and learning old Baltimore experiences Doris recalled so vividly. May Doris rest peacefully as those she leaves behind remember her dearly. Susanne, thank you for sharing your Mom with me. Warmly,
Marco*

To the Family of Ms. Doris,

I grew up with you. Ms. Doris was always my favorite neighbor. I saw her whenever I came home. So sorry I am just learning of our lost. Billy and Sue, be blessed and may your memories keep you moving forward. I remembered when you became a family; so stay a family, look out for one another and let the legacy of love live on in you. God bless
