

Doris W. Phillips

December 8, 1927 - August 7, 2013

Doris W. Phillips, daughter of the late Edward and Madeline Phillips, was born on December 8, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 7, 2013 suddenly.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of thirty-two, she became employed by Johns Hopkins Hospital on a full-time basis and retired after thirty years of service.

Her devoted son, Michael C. Phillips, brought joy and happiness to her life when he was born in the year 1956.

She had a love for traveling, going to places such as France, Germany, Canada and the Czech Republic. She thoroughly enjoyed leisurely reading and cross-word puzzles. She enjoyed long conversations on the phone with her loved ones and spending time with her family. She was affectionately called "Omi" which her granddaughters took from the German word Oma, which stands for grandma.

She was a burst of joy and loved life to the fullest. She was a comedian in her own right, and enjoyed making people laugh. She was a passionate cook and enjoyed making sweets.

To know Doris Winifred was to love Doris Winifred. She was a bright ray of sunshine in the lives of everyone she met. She was a confidante and trusted friend to many.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Michael C. Phillips; two sisters, Carolyn Harris and Barbara Fewes; one brother, William Phillips and his wife Wanda of Florida; two granddaughters, Marquita Phillips and Michelle Phillips; four great-grandchildren, Avante, Kaliyah, Marquis and Sanae; nieces and nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
