“ Aunt Doris was the matriarch of a wonderful, loving family. In fact, she was the matriarch of the entire Pringle family as she was our eldest aunt, and widow of the oldest brother (Uncle Bill). She displayed a humble and quiet spirit, but obviously was a strong mother because her family displays such a strong bond and devotion to one another. Certainly a blessing in the times that we live in. Aunt Doris, we are so happy that we were able to share in your 85th birthday celebration...that last time we saw you, you were so happy and looked so pretty. What an awesome way to remember you in the years to come. We will be there for our cousins, and will always remember you. Thank you for being such an example of love, motherhood and family to all of us.

With love, Rob, Michelle (Teny) and Kayla Pringle.
