

Doris Richardson

November 21, 1940 - January 13, 2013

DORIS RICHARDSON was born on November 21, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Aaron E. Butler and Jennie Mae Butler. Doris was the youngest of a family of three girls.

Doris was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and later received her GED.

Doris accepted Christ at an early age and continued to serve Him faithfully until her illness.

Doris' spiritual life in Nazarene; she was the Pastor's aide, President of the Adult and Youth Usher's for many years, church choir (VOICES), Women Ministry, Trustee, Secretary for the Saturday Church School and President of the Sunshine Spreaders.

Doris was a devoted, dedicated single mother. She loved family gatherings, cookouts, going to Myrtle Beach, cooking, bowling and spending time with her church family.

Doris resided at Ridgeway Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Baltimore County. She was well cared for by the Ridgeway staff and her cousin, Joan Saunders.

She was also well liked.

Doris was employed with Bell Atlantic (supervisor), Baltimore City Jail (record keeper), Baltimore Public School (substitute teacher, teacher's aide and food service worker).

Doris was preceded in death by two grandchildren, Rhonda Hill and Wayne Matthew, Jr.

On Sunday, January 13, 2013, Doris transitioned from earth to glory. She leaves to cherish her legacy: six children, her son, George Jr.; five daughters, Linda, Wanda, Deirdre, Kimberly and Cynthia; two sisters, Cecelia Clash and Barbara Greene; fourteen grandchildren and thirty-two great-grandchildren; two special friends, Shirley Martin-Wood and Christine Tillman; and numerous other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
