“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Brown. Death is something hard to cope with, comfort, love and support from caring family and friends can help. One source of comfort is God's word the Bible. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8 where it says " He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces....." This will soon be a reality by means of God's Kingdom(((imported-begin)))K. D. Smith(((imported-end)))

“ To Family and friends of Doris Scott Brown: I am truly sorry for your lose. Lossing a loved one is truly hard for ever one. As you go though your time grieving know that the bible holds out hope for your family. Isaiah 25:8 says He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and he will certainly wipe the tears from all faces and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth for Jehovah himself has spoken it. If you compare this scripture with Revelation 21:3,4: With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away. To the family of Doris Scott Brown my heart goes out to you but Gods word does promise help at John 17:3 it gives us the answer to that promise. “ My family and I offer our sincere sympathy to the Brown family. During times of sorrow we have found comfort from the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." Isaiah 66:13. He will also provide for you.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
