I worked with Doris Street many years ago at the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn. Doris was always pleasant and invariably greeted everyone with her infectious smile as well as a daily countenance full of pleasantries. She was the office aristocrat with superior flair. May her soul rest in eternal peace. Also, may her legacy of grandeur and nobility live on for generations.

“ Your mother was such a warm and beautiful woman inside and out. You may take it for granted but not all mothers come with such grace.

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE

Thanks for the time we shared
