

Doris Ellis Taylor

August 13, 1952 - December 20, 2022

Doris Ellis Taylor affectionately known as “Peggy” was born August 13, 1952, in Whitakers, North Carolina, to the late Frank Cornell, Sr. and Selma Ellis. At a young age, Doris and her siblings moved to Richmond, Virginia where she was educated in the Richmond Public School System. In 1989, she received her Certified Nurse Aid License and accepted a position at Windsor Senior Living, where she was employed for 23 years. In 2013, Doris accepted Christ into her life and joined Abundant Life Church of Christ. Doris loved spending time with her family and extended family. She was proud of her two sons and adored her only grandchild. Doris was a supportive grandmother and could be found at many of her granddaughter’s dance showcases and programs over the years. Doris enjoyed shopping, watching ‘the stories’ on television and loved a good action or suspense movie. Doris was known for her sense of style. She took pride in her appearance and always presented herself with grace and poise. After a brief round of sickness, Doris peacefully transitioned from this life to her spiritual home on Tuesday, December 20, 2022. She is preceded in death by her parents, Frank, and Selma Ellis; brothers, Otto Peterson, Daryl Ellis and Carl Ellis; sister, Bertha Clarke.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory are her sons, Robert Ellis (Telisha) and Monte Ellis (Nyasha); granddaughter Talia Ellis; brothers, Frank (Tima) and Calvin Ellis; and sister, Linda Ellis; devoted friend, Betty Hopkins and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
