“ *I was saddened to hear of the passing of 'Grand-Doris'; but at the same time rejoicing in my spirit knowing that the Lord had called home His daughter to rest. She was a remarkable woman with remarkable strength and most of all a remarkable beauty. She will be missed but her legacy will carry on. I submit to each of you that you remain joyous, inspired and encouraged in the love and warmth of this great woman. Keep each other close and in all that you do remember to do it in "Grand-Doris style". Praying for you and wishing that each of you be blessed. Take special care of each other and yourselves. “ I am so sorry to hear that you lost your loved one in death. Keep these encouraging scriptures in mind whenever you are feeling sad. Rev 21,4 promises this: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Concerning the wonderful hope of the resurrection John 5:28,29 says these wonderful words: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Please find comfort in God"s promises, because they will without fail come to pass. Isaiah 55,10-11.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
