

Dornie Davis

May 9, 1915 - April 1, 2004

Dornie Dubose Davis was born May 9, 1915 in Lamar, South Carolina to the late Edward and Bessie Andrews Dubose Washington Morris. She departed this life April 1, 2004. She was educated in the public schools of Lamar, South Carolina. She met and married James B. Davis. They were married sixty years before he passed away in 1993. To this union seven children were born. She was a born-again Christian at an early age; she taught Sunday school also at an early age. She was a member of Shady Grove Methodist Church for forty-five years. She moved to Baltimore and was a member of Lewin Methodist Church for twenty-eight years. She was a member of Calvary A. Me. E. Church for five years until her health failed. She loved to sing her favorite songs, "The Crown" and "Precious Lord, Take My Hand and Lead Me Home." She leaves to mourn their loss; four daughters, Ruby Davis Dargan (Hayward), Mildred Davis Hymes, Betty Davis Gale and Dornie "Sue" Davis; two sons, James "Jake" Davis (Clara) and Major Davis (Loretta); two brothers, Norris "Dock" Dubose and Asbury "Son" Washington; two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, twenty-six grandchildren, thirty-six great-grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren. One son, Carel Davis, preceded her in death. She raised Carel's son from the age of six months old.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Please accept my belated condolences. Daniel 12:2 promises a return to life- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." The life then will be peaceful and there will be no more sickness, sorrow, aging or pain. (Please read Revelation 21:3-5, Job 33:24 and Psalm 37:9-11) May these divinely inspired promises give you comfort, peace and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
