

Dorothea Lomax

November 25, 1952 - May 2, 2011

Dorothea Anita Lomax, daughter of the late Harry and Dorothy J. Johnson, was born on November 25, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 2, 2011.

Dorothea was known to many as Dottie, but to the little ones who adored her most, she was Nana. Dottie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a graduate of Eastern High School where she sang on the choir. She furthered her learning by attending Cortez Peters Business College to enhance her skills and the Peabody Institute of Music to gain greater music knowledge. Dottie attended and was baptized at the Saint Paul Baptist Church. She was a member of the Youth Choir, Junior Missionaries and Sunday School.

Her grandmother, the late Annie Banks, her Aunts Mildred and Margie Banks supported her in her growth and efforts as a young and maturing adult.

Dorothea's first job was as a secretary of the Dunbar Day Care Center. She became a legal secretary for John Stencil. After nine years she became a Commitment Records Specialist for the State of Maryland.

Dottie married Frank H. Lomax, Jr and from this union raised two daughters, Jacquetta and Trashauna and two sons, Marlo (who preceded her in death) and Clinton. They've celebrated over 33 years of marriage, love and friendship.

Dottie was a very private, loving and family oriented person. She enjoyed watching old movies, playing keno and 'going up the road' with her sister Rose.

Dottie leaves to mourn her departing; her husband, Frank; children Jacquetta (Brian) Pumphrey, Trashauna and Clinton; grandchildren, Devin, Brionna, Trashelle, Marlo Jr, Nakiyah, Tyrae, Tyrel, John Jr; mother-in-law; Geraldine Lomax; siblings, Mary Little, Rosetta (Robert) Marks, Dennis (Patricia) Johnson, Patricia Johnson and Barbara Ann Johnson; in-laws, Geraldine (William) Gibson, Debra Streat, Marie (John) Turpin, Francis Lomax, and Richard Lomax; aunts and uncles, Annie (Charles) Dorsey, (Devoted Aunt) Mildred Banks, Helen Boardley, Margie Banks and Phyllis Banks (New York); three devoted and John Hawkins; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“Hey mom its been a year already, you don't know how much you're missed. Jenea and lil john are constantly saying "i miss nana" or "remember when we were with nana and....." I remember it all just like it was yesterday. I just wanted you to know just how loved and appreciated you were, you were my rock, a great mom and a great friend. What I wouldn't give to sit at the table with you again, or go for a ride, just talk to you again. I love you mommy and miss you more today than I did one year ago today. I couldn't have asked for a better mother, friend and grandmother for my children. Love always

I am missing you so much right now. Shauna and I are trying to get through these tough times the best way we know how. Although we have each other to comfort and talk to , I cannot explain how hard it is for us to get through each day knowing that we wont hear your voice or see your face or get your advice when we need it. We know you are in a better place and you are now pain free but our pain lives on. We find comfort in knowing that you are in a better place and you are looking down on us with a smile. Your grandchildren miss you more than ever and the transition has been really difficult for them because they love you so much. We are doing the best we can to be there for the children as well as each other but we would give anything to have you back. We will continue to think about you no matter where we go or what we do and most of all, we will always love you and no one could ever take your place in our hearts or in our lives. WE LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU!

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Lomax's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, “Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.’ Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, “Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise.” Jesus statement meant that “All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
