

Dorothy Beasley

February 1, 1940 - December 17, 2010

DOROTHY F. BEASLEY, daughter of the late Chester and Louise Ford, dear mother of Craig Beasley and Glenn Beasley, was born on February 1, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. She entered into eternal rest on December 17, 2010.

Dorothy graduated from Douglass High School and Johns Hopkins School of Radiological Technology and married John Willie Beasley shortly thereafter. After passing the national board, she worked at Johns Hopkins Hospital and numerous other local medical facilities.

Dorothy was baptized early in life at The Little Macedonia Baptist Church, which later became The New Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Though illness slowed her down in later years, she enjoyed the piano, reading and gardening. Her favorite pastime was conversing for hours with very close family members.

Dorothy had five brothers, two of whom, Louis and Bernard, preceded her in death. She is survived by: two sons, Craig Beasley and Glenn Beasley; three brothers, Jerome Ford (Marie), Chester Ford and William Ford; one grandson, Justin Beasley; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.
