

Dorothy D. Bishop

October 29, 1932 - March 11, 2019

DOROTHY D. BISHOP (nee Brown), departed peacefully on March 11, 2019, after a long and courageous battle with Alzheimer's disease.

Dorothy was born on October 27, 1932, to the late Eugene S. Brown, Sr. and late Dorothy A. Brown (nee Bacon) in Baltimore, Maryland. She had seven siblings: the late Elinore E. Brown, the late Lillian M. Brown, Rev. Eugene S. Brown, Jr., the late Melvin Brown, Carol Brown, Helen Pinnick, and Vera Brown.

As a graduate of Dunbar High School in Baltimore, MD, she enjoyed performing and dancing on stage.

She also enjoyed sewing, cooking and hosting parties for family and friends. Dorothy was full of life and curious about everything. All who knew her considered her a friend for life.

She worked as a records clerk at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She went on to work as a print assistant and ascended to sales representative for Hecht Company (presently known as Macy's) for over 38 years.

Dorothy's many awards for top selling performance demonstrate how she loved connecting with people and helping them feel their best.

Dorothy gave her life to Christ at a young age and deeply loved the Lord. She had a strong concern for people and how they were doing.

Regardless of one's personality, she always said, "Everyone needs to be loved". Over the years, she was a member of All Saints, and an usher at Long Reach Church of God and New Psalmist Baptist Church.

August 1, 1954, Dorothy wed her high-school sweetheart, the late Major William Bishop, Jr. From that union came four children, the late Michael W. Bishop, Sr., Victoria D. Bishop, Ramona Bishop Cross and Linda Bishop Johnson.

She leaves behind: three daughters; a brother, Rev. Eugene S. Brown, Jr. and wife Dorothy; two sisters, Helen Pinnick and Vera Brown; daughter in-law, Barbara Mason-Bishop; son-in-law, Louis B. Johnson, and a host of family and friends. Dorothy also leaves six grandchildren, Michael W. Bishop Jr., Linda D. Cross, Marc T. Cross Jr., Joseph C. Cross II, Joshua N. Johnson and Alexander H. Bishop.
