

Dorothy Mae Boulware

September 2, 1932 - December 25, 2024

DOROTHY MAE BOULWARE, daughter of the late James and Mary Whitaker, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on September 2, 1932. She departed her life on December 25, 2024.

Dorothy began her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She later met and married the late Claude Boulware and gained a stepson, Edward Pauley.

She attended Huntingdon Baptist Church in Baltimore City.

Dorothy worked as a housekeeper and caregiver for Mr. and Mrs. David Greenberg for over 30 years. She lovingly cared for their children, Janice and David, and cared for Mr. Greenberg until his passing. She also held other various jobs throughout her lifetime.

“Ms. Bea”, as she was affectionately called by family and friends, always made herself available to offer a helping hand of support and assistance when needed. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She will be remembered for hosting fun-filled holiday dinners that were prepared for all to enjoy in fellowship and family love. Dorothy was preceded in death by sisters: Bertha Wells (Benjamin), Marie Jones (Henry), Ruth Boulware (Eldra); and brothers: James Whitaker, Robert Brogden, Calvin Brogden and Vernon Brogden - all of Baltimore, Maryland.

In celebration of her life, Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory: stepson, Edward Pauley; three grandchildren, Michael, Jackie and Missy; great-grandchildren; a devoted niece, Ruth Dates; nephew, Calvin "Denard" James; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other family members and friends.
