

Dorothy Elizabeth Caldwell

March 4, 1910 - March 23, 2011

DOROTHY ELIZABETH CALDWELL, age 101, the daughter of Lydia Bentley and Austin Clayton was born on March 4, 1910 in St. Michaels, Maryland. She departed this life in March 23, 2011 after a long illness. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev James N. Caldwell, Sr.; her son, James N. Caldwell, Jr.; and her sister, Agnes M. Blair.

She was educated in the public schools of Talbot County, Maryland. She and Rev. James N. Caldwell, Sr. were married for sixty-one years. Out of this union, two children were born; Jean Bernice Caldwell and James N. Caldwell, Jr.

She spent twenty-five years working at Johns Hopkins University in food service and retired from there.

After her retirement, she baby-sat all the grandchildren and was known for her delicious hot rolls, her meatloaf and Kale.

Mom-Mom was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother. She unselfishly loves us all.

She was a faithful member of St .James United Methodist Church for many years.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Jean B. Steptoe; two granddaughters, Karen D. Carter (Rhynie) and Renee J. Carter; five great-grandchildren, Nicole Allen, Ian Berry, Kit Carpenter, Diandra Carter and Michael Carter; and seven great-great-grandchildren, Damere Allen, Nyla Walters, Quintrell Carpenter, Katrell Carpenter, Kit Carpenter, Jr., Jaden Carter and Jeremiah Berry; a host of other family members and friends.

In remembering her, Mom would want our hearts to be light. She would want all to celebrate her life, not mourn her departure.

“ *Mom,
I miss you so much.
I love you,
Jean*

Jean B. Steptoe (Daughter) - July 26, 2011 at 09:16 PM

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away.'

A Robinson - March 30, 2011 at 07:23 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
