“ Hello ! Carter's ! May I send my fellow feelings. May the family be having peace of mind and body. Ms. Dorothy was 90 years young. The bible at Ps.90:10, say the some persons would live to be 70 and others because of speical mightniess 80 years, Ms. Dorothy lived longer. The time is coming when we will not be sadden by death. A great time indeed to see as Rev.21:3-5 say" All things will be made new". I am looking forward to seeing it coming and I know youe all are too.May all the many many happy times spent with Ms.Dorothy stay very close. I hope these words prove to be uplifting to read. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ May you have comfort and peace from the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor. 1:3,4. One day death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. 'The former things will have passed away.' May those thoughts bring your family comfort, as well as the hope of the promised resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Carter, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible reveals to us that no matter how long our loved ones have lived, death is an enemy to us all. (1 Corinthians 15:26) The Bible gives us a wonderful hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Bible.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###
