

Dorothy E. Brown

November 16, 1946 - February 9, 2002

“He answered and set me free.” Mrs. Dorothy E. Brown (known to everyone, as Dollbaby), the daughter of the late George and Helen Saunders was born on November 16, 1946 in Baltimore MD. She departed this life on February 9, 2002 at Johns Hopkins Hospital after a brief illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Dollbaby accepted Christ at an early age while attending the Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church. She was united in holy matrimony to Willie Brown Sr., and from that union five children were born. Dollbaby was well liked by everyone who came in contact with her. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed. She was a loving mother, devoted sister, and a true friend. She leaves special memories to a husband, Willie Brown Sr.; children, Willie, Raymond, Veronica, Darlene, and Eunice, who preceded her in death; twenty-one grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and four sisters, Mabel Fuller, Marion Jackson, Bessie Williams, and Eunice Buie; one son –in-law, Dione Roberts; two daughters-in-law, Wanda and Yvette Brown; one sister-in-law, Betty Jean Brown; and a host of family and friends, including a devoted nephew, Raymond Moten and three devoted friends, Frederick Williams, Geraldine Jackson, and Dorothea Hercy. Grandma, I am hurting, can't you see. I didn't know all along you were trying to tell me, that you were leaving me. You know I love you from the bottom of my heart, but I knew your life was getting rough from the start, So God stepped right in with his master plan and decided to take you in his hands. My heart is broken inside and out, so all I can do now is scream and shout. All I can say is you are in a better place now, and I wish you were here to hear the sweet sounds. So now I lay you down to rest, I am trying not to grieve, I am trying my best. Even though I can't accept the fact that you are gone and I am here all alone. You're not alone now; you have your daughter Rene. Of all questions I have to ask, why did you leave so soon? Why?Your Granddaughter, Jessica “ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
