

Dorothy E. Cantey

August 7, 1961 - September 5, 2002

Dorothy Elizabeth Cantey (nee Jackson), daughter of the late Ellsworth L. Jackson, Jr. and the late Gwendolyn Woodland Jackson, was born on August 7, 1961. In His infinite wisdom, God called her home on September 5, 2002. Dorothy received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Mergenthaler vocational Technical High School in 1979. Later, Dorothy attended the Community College of Baltimore where she majored in business Administration. She was employed at the University of Maryland (Baltimore) for the past 11 years as a Senior Buyer Clerk. Dorothy met and married Malik Salaam. From this union was born one son, Malik Sallam, Jr. She later married beloved husband, Lincoln Edward Cantey on March 30, 2002. Dorothy enjoyed entertaining family and friends. She had a love for the arts, sports, traveling and reading. She was always willing to lend a helping hand. Dorothy's vibrant enthusiasm, bubbly laughter and endearing personality won her friends wherever she went. She leaves to mourn: a loving and devoted husband, Lincoln Cantey; one son, Malik Sallam, Jr.; one stepdaughter, Sabrina Cantey; a loving sister and brother, Yvette Hopwood and Steven A. Jackson, Sr.; one stepbrother, Ellsworth L. Jackson IV; a father-in-law, Junius Cantey of Summerton, South Carolina; a devoted brother-in-law, George Hopwood; five other brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law; nieces, Ashley Hill and Alicia Jackson; nephews, Ellsworth L. Jackson V, Jawan Hopwood, Devin Hopwood and Steven A. Jackson, Jr.; seventeen other nieces and nephews, a host of aunts, uncles, and other relatives and friends.

Special recognition to her endearing friends from UMB, Toni, George, Mary, Valerie, Kendra, Mike and Rose and a special thanks to all her co-workers.
