

Dorothy E. Clark

February 22, 1922 - July 10, 2009

Dorothy Elizabeth Clark (nee Whitfield) was born in Wake Forest, North Carolina on February 22, 1922 and departed this life on July 10, 2009. Her mother, sister and brother died young, and her aunts in North Carolina raised her. She attended school in Wake Forest and completed the eleventh grade. She left North Carolina and moved to Baltimore where she met and married Frank Howard Clark (who preceded her in death in 1987), to whom she was married for thirty-eight years. She was a friend to all, and seldom complained, and always had the sweetest smile on her face. She was a faithful member of Eastside Baptist Church for thirty years until her illness prevented her from attending services. She had a lovely speaking voice and was often called upon to speak in church. She worked as a Nurses Aide for fifteen years until her retirement in 1984. For the last ten years of her life she attended the Hopkins Elder plus Program, which she loved. She was the mother of four children, one who preceded her in death in 1987, Ronald Whitfield. She leaves behind her to mourn; one daughter, Patricia E. Williams and two sons, James C. Whitfield and Frank Clark, Jr.; three grandchildren, Tammy N. Mays, Tiffany E. Sweetwine and Neil N. Williams; and five great-grandchildren, Maya Sweetwine, Raegan Williams, Bria Mays, Cameron Mays and Kristopher Williams; as well as a host of friends and relatives.

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy E. Clark

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ sorry to hear of the lost of your mother my prayer and thoughts are with you nelson##imported-begin##louise nelson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in your time of sorrow. May the Lord bless and keep you all.##imported-begin##Veronica Bostic##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM