

Dorothy E. Turner

August 25, 1927 - August 6, 2002

Dorothy Elizabeth Turner, daughter of the late Lee and Emma Noble, was born on August 25, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, August 6, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Later, she took some courses at Morgan State College. For many of her adult years, she worked at Johns Hopkins and Sinai Hospitals. Until retiring, she had a long career as a clerk at the Social Security Administration. She was married to the Lawrence Rayfield Turner for thirty-two years. That union produced two sons-Brian Lamont and Dana Maurice. She was a creative woman and accomplished seamstress. She was always willing to lend a hand and make a friend. She is survived by her devoted sons; three siblings, Mary Catherine Stokes, Mildred Hill and Ralph Noble; seven grandchildren, Shawn Turner, Nicole Richardson, Joy Turner, Isaac Turner, Zachary Turner, Morgan Turner and Donya Turner; a daughter-in-law, Wanda Turner; a brother-in-law, Pete Standifer; other relatives and one special friend, Rita Holmes

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
