

Dorothy M. Elmore

March 25, 1932 - August 8, 2016

Dorothy M. Elmore, daughter of the late William and Charlotte James was born on March 25, 1932 in Sumter, S.C. She departed this life on August 8, 2016 joining her two sons, Harold Elmore, Jr and Michael A. Elmore, her mother and father that preceded her in death.

She left Sumter, SC and came to Baltimore, Maryland at the age of nine where she attended Dunbar Jr and Sr. High School. She married Harold Elmore Sr. in 1952 and had six boys and three girls. She worked at Lord Baltimore Laundry, did house work and retired in 1999 from Super Pride Food Market where she worked for 17 years.

Ms. Dot, as she was known to everyone, enjoyed dancing, partying and traveling with her children, family and friends. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother and was loved by all her many children. She was always willing to help her family in their time of need, whether it meant providing food, clothes or shelter, she did what was necessary so that no one was lacking.

She joined Mt. Oliver Missionary Baptist Church and was a dedicated member for over 30+ years. She was lovingly known as Mother Elmore.

She leaves to mourn; her children, Robert (Renee) James, Louis (Delmetria) Elmore, Reginald (Shervon) Elmore, Karen Daughtry, Teresa Felton, Maurice(Dorothea) Elmore and Patricia Elmore; her adopted children Reginald Eley, Darby Carter and Sharon Woods; her loving friend, Robert Covington, Jr. twenty-three grandchildren, twenty-nine great-grandchildren; one great=greatchild; and a host of nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.
